

My work begins with a deep love of nature and our environment. I feel that every animal, plant, leaf, and feather is a work of art in itself. I combine those interests with the magic of kiln firing that turns clay and glaze into artistic pottery. Applying a mix of colors and textures gives me an infinite opportunity to create a tapestry of design. Some of my pieces are true to nature while others are more whimsical.

ARTIST STATEMENT FOR KATHIE ALONSO