

Calvin Ma Artist Statement:

My work juxtaposes social anxieties with childhood play. Toys and action figures played a big role in helping me cope with my anxieties growing up. Now as an adult/artist still struggling with social anxiety, I enjoy reconnecting with my inner child to create works that weave playful and imaginative tales that examine the role of toys not only as art, but also mechanisms to cope with social anxiety.