

Connie Christensen

Artist Statement

As an artist, I am interested in functional pots that can have meaning in your everyday life such as coffee in the morning with a favorite mug, your hands becoming familiar with every curve and ridge, a vase for your favorite flowers or a covered jar that holds something special.