

Christopher Cunningham

My current ceramic work is about exploring relationships that I have in my life. "Cohabitation Series – Links" is about a tug-of-war within a family I know, with the two daughters orbiting around.

The process of creating and fabricating is something I also enjoy too. These pieces become a puzzle that I have to devise a way to fire them together successfully.