

R E B E C C A C . H A R V E Y

S H O R T B I O G R A P H Y

Born in Columbus, Ohio Rebecca Harvey received her MFA from Cranbrook Academy of Art in Bloomfield Hills, MI and her BFA from the University of the Arts in Philadelphia, PA.

Numerous awards include several Ohio Arts Council Awards, Columbus Arts Council Award and International residencies in countries from Sweden to China, Canada to Italy and Iceland to Germany. She often writes and lectures about the intertwined histories of the decorative arts, and articles featuring her work have appeared in Studio Potter and American Craft.

S H O R T S T A T E M E N T

My recent work has been both project and place based, centered in the orchestration of objects. I work with measure and balance, parts are formed, colored, and placed; lines are created between and through shapes. My practice lays a line of abstraction and chance, obscuring common objects to re-illustrate the world.