

Barbara Hoffman

Artist Statement

I began altering forms as a reflection of my experiences and thoughts wood firing and watching the undulating flames inside the kiln. Adding incised black slipped lines emphasizes movement and adds drama. These same forms lend themselves well to the effects of soda.