

Paul McCoy

Artist Statement

Within this body of work, I am most concerned with achieving a simplicity and directness of form and surface that conveys optimal clarity regarding the object's functional identity. The vases are suggestive of the figure and the atmospheric surfaces achieved through wood firing imbue the pieces with subtle emotive nuance.